Law (General) Department.

Madras.

Sir,

M. R. Ry. Padmaraja Athikari, President of the Naravi Panchayat Court, was removed from his office for certain misconduct. To fill the vacancy thus caused, a meeting was convened on 31-8-1928. The Revenue Divisional Officer, Coondapoor, reports that at this meeting only 16 persons attended and nobody stood as a candidate for election.

2. Three other members were subsequently removed from service for their failure to attend the sittings of the court for more than five consecutive meetings. The Revenue Divisional Officer reports that it is impossible to secure suitable candidates for these vacancies. Both the Tahsildar of Karkal and the Revenue Divisional Officer, Coondapoor therefore recommend the abolition of the Panchayat Court. I agree with them and recommend that the court may be disestablished under the provisions of Section 9 (7) of the Madras Village Court Act, 1888 as amended by Madras Act II of 1920.

3. I enclose the Tahsildar's report Ref.C.No. 1777/Sup.28 dated 2-9-28 to the Revenue Divisional Officer and the Revenue Divisional Officer's report D.Dis. No.6017 28 dated 12-9-28 for perusal and return.

Your obedient servant,

H Sanderson

Collector.
